President's Corner

I am grateful to all of our faculty and staff who have been quick in adapting to changes during the Covid-19 shelter in place orders. Many of you have embraced new online technologies, showing great resilience in the process.

As soon as shelter in place orders were issued, the CoA Professional Development and Distance Education (DE) Committees were quick to facilitate a variety of online trainings for faculty and staff, addressing a variety of important subjects, including Counseling in the Remote Environment During a State of Emergency, an in-depth Q&A re: Accreditation with ACCJC During a State of Emergency, Equity Mindedness for Hiring in a Virtual Format during a State of Emergency, and Open Educational Resources (OER) Basics, among others. DE Coordinator Jennifer Fowler and

Diana Bajrami generously offered one-on-one 30 minute individual trainings to help faculty transition from in-person classes to online formats. Special thanks to Jennifer and Diana for their efforts. In addition to moving classes online, counseling, health, and other student services are now being offered online as well. While the CoA Library is physically closed, they too are offering online services. Thank you all for your extraordinary efforts in supporting our students. Together we will navigate these uncertain waters. Stay well!

Sincerely,

Timothy Karas, Ed.D.
President

CoA's FabLab Produces Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)

CoA's FabLab joined other FabLabs and makers in the Bay Area in making critically needed Personal protective equipment (PPE) for hospitals and healthcare workers on the frontlines of fighting Covid-19. FabLab Technician Miguel Vega, Justin Iredale, and Fabricator Vincent Stevenson used a CO2 laser at the FabLab to cut and assemble much needed, high quality face shields. In late March, CoA's Stevenson joined Rick Rothbart and Levi Williams of Laney College in perfecting a prototype for a face shield to be used as PPE in a healthcare setting for the prevention of Covid-19 infections. In early April, Coca-Cola donated 4,500 pounds of polyethylene terephthalate (PET) rolls to be made into face shields. Makers at CoA and from around the Bay Area worked in sync to transform the material into thousands of face shields designed to protect wearers from airborne particles. A special thanks to Danny Beesley, Miguel Vega, and Vince Stevenson for helping lead an extraordinary volunteer effort.

Student Testimonial

Hello! I am Molly Clem, a current high school at Alameda Science and Technology Institute. I started going to the COA Fab Lab in my sophomore year (2018), and worked as the Maker-In-Residence in my junior year. (2019) I loved my time in the lab! I was able to design and create projects for myself, my friends, and the community. I created a rasterized periodic table of the elements for a college chemistry classroom, made animal shelter blankets for dogs and kittens, and did fascinating research on piezoelectric powered gliders. At the Fab Lab I learned Adobe Illustrator and Photoshop software, Fusion 360 CAD, the design iteration process, and grew my team building skills. The Fab Lab Leads here have also helped me network. Now as a senior I have been applying to colleges. The Fab Lab equipped me with the skills to make myself a strong candidate for these colleges, as well as supported my ambitions for higher education. Because of this I was able to get into my top choice of school Worcester Polytechnic Institute. I could not be thankful enough for everything the COA Fab Lab has done for me.

ABC Channel 7 Interviews Hoi Ko about the Impact of Grounding Planes

On Friday, April 3, 2020, ABC Channel 7's Investigative Reporter Eric Thomas contacted CoA's Aviation and Technology Program Department Chair Hoi Ko about the vast number of planes now sitting idle at Bay Area Airports due to the coronavirus pandemic. At Oakland International Airport there were about a half dozen Alaska Airlines jets clustered together in a spot between terminals. Ko said that "In short term storage they might have to run the engine from time to time, or they might have to run certain systems to keep them lubricated and operating. Otherwise the planes could suffer corrosion and need expensive repairs. But, if the drop in flights continues because of the virus, the aircraft would need longer term storage." ## Welcome New Staff!

College of Alameda was awarded the Hispanic-Serving Institution (HSI) grant in October 2019, a grant that will provide funds over a five year period. The HSI grant will fund the Adelante con Comunidad, Excelencia, Sabiduría y Oportunidad (ACCESO) Program, which is expected to demonstrate impact on student success by being responsive to the needs of Latinx and low-income students. Under ACCESO, the PUENTE Program will provide a learning community with enhanced support for students pursuing transfer to four-year institutions. Please note that the PUENTE Program welcomes ALL students, so please refer students to the PUENTE Website for information on how to apply.

On April 13, 2020, two key staff were hired to lead the efforts of the ACCESO and PUENTE Programs. In the next few weeks, they will be reaching out to many of you, so please help me welcome them to the College of Alameda family.

East Bay SCORE Continues to Provide Crucial Support to Struggling Local Businesses During Pandemic

East Bay SCORE recently moved their offices to the College of Alameda only to close their doors due to the recent shelter in place order. That hasn't stopped them from continuing to provide invaluable services to their clients remotely.

The mission of the College of Alameda is to serve the educational needs of its community by providing comprehensive and flexible programs and resources to empower students to achieve their goals.

According to Neil Rubenstein, Chair of East Bay SCORE, they have received an enormous number of requests from individuals and small businesses for help. From March 1, 2020, through April 13, 2020, East Bay SCORE conducted multiple counseling sessions by phone, video conference, and email for more than 200 clients, totaling 455 individual counseling sessions.

Although not all of the counseling sessions were primarily focused on Coronavirus/COVID-19, the subject came up in almost every session. Rubenstein said that they have the capacity for continuing to respond to the recent surge in demand. To meet demand, East Bay SCORE formed a team of expert counselors that stays up-to-date on new programs and changes in existing programs; counsels clients; and acts as a resource for other counselors. The dedicated team communicates regularly, and exchanges information, with other SCORE chapters and SCORE National.

Clients are giving East Bay SCORE very high marks for their special efforts. Since March 1, 2020, out of 54 client evaluations, 53 clients gave their services a rating of nine or 10 on a scale with 10 being the highest.

Make Your Splash!

- Is there a colleague that you'd like to recognize or a new staff member in your department that you'd like to welcome?
  - Do you know an outstanding student whose story you would like to share?
  - Is there an upcoming event that we should all know about?
  - Did you attend an interesting workshop or conference?
- Do you have special projects or field trips planned this semester?
  - Have you or a colleague been honored with an award, or have you published an article, book, or chapter recently?

Send us your news, so that we may share it with the campus and the community in the next edition of Splash! It's easy –just send us a short article and a good photo or two, and we will take care of the rest. Do not forget to include the name of the writer, the photographer, and anyone who is pictured (if possible). Be sure to email your news and information to: coasplash@peralta.edu and be sure to include the word “Splash” in the subject line. Past issues of the CoA Splash are available at <https://alameda.peralta.edu/newsletter/coa-splash/>
