Humanities (HUMAN)

What is the Humanities? Humanities is an interdisciplinary field that involves the study of creative human thought and expression. The main objective of studying Humanities at College of Alameda is to examine significant cultural artifacts, enduring artistic creations, and touchstone ideas and beliefs from a variety of scholarly and personal perspectives.

As an integral part of general education, Humanities encourages students to examine diverse forms of creativity and innovation to gain perspective on their own lives and the world around them. COA courses in the Humanities typically explore such fields as the visual arts, literature, media, popular culture, folklore, storytelling, humor, games, religion, music, dance, cuisine, fashion, tourism, and technology.

Humanities will help you to: transfer to any discipline at a college or university; improve your creative and critical thinking, cultural competence, and social awareness; and develop skills in community building and conflict resolution.
